New Delhi, the 7th May 1951

No. 10-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Punjab Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Mukna Ram, Mounted Head Constable No. 283, Ferozepore District, Punjab.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—Early in 1949, an armed gang of dacoits under the leadership of Hazara Singh had become active in the riverain area on the borders of Ferozepore and Amritsar districts. Special measures were adopted to round up this gang. On the 1st April 1949 Mounted Head Constable Mukna Ram along with 4 others started for Behak Kalashe an open area surrounded by a jungle of reeds which was suspected as one of the places of shelter of the gang. The dacoits were actually in hiding at this spot and as soon as they saw the police party they opened fire. After sometime, the outlaws made for some dense reeds. The police party gave chase. Galloping fast on uneven and treacherous ground the horses ridden by Head Constable Mukna Ram and another constable slipped and fell down. Mukna Ram, however, immediately remounted and continued the chase, firing at the outlaws. One of the dacoits, Thakur Singh took up position and began firing at the police party. In spite of this, Mukna Ram continued to chase Hazara Singh and Nazar Singh, the other two dacoits. Seeing Mukna Ram's determination to capture them, Nazar Singh also took up position and fired at Mukna Ram, but in the exchange of fire he was shot dead. Hazara Singh, the other dacoit, however, escaped. Thakur Singh, who, in the meantime had been engaged by one of the mounted constables was also killed. A-303 rifle, a-12 bore C.M. pistol and some cartridges were recovered from the person of these dacoits.

In this encounter Mounted Head Constable Mukna Ram showed leadership, determination and courage of a high order.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as laid down in rule 5.

No. 11-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Mani Ram Kala, Sub-inspector, XI Battalion, Provincial Armed Constabulary, Uttar Pradesh, on deputation to Hyderabad State.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the 29th December 1948 information was received by Sub-Inspector Mani Ram Kala that Gopala Reddy with his gang of terrorists, who had committed a number of murders in Nalgonda and Warangal Districts of Hyderabad State, and who were armed with modern high-powered weapons, was going to have his mid-day meal in a village called Patarlapad. After collecting a small police force, the Sub-Inspector proceeded immediately to the village. On arrival, he checked up the information about the presence of this gang and quickly encircled the area in which the gang was camping. Seeing the police party advancing towards them, the terrorists opened fire with rifles and automatics, but the Sub-Inspector and his men continued their advance underterred until they came within about 150 yards of the gang. At this spot, the Sub-Inspector gave an order to open fire. In this encounter, one of the hostiles sitting on a tree for snipping was the first to be shot dead by the Sub-Inspector. This unnerved the rest of the gang who were deprived of the advantage of retaining their initiative against the police. Ultimately, Gopala Reddy, the leader of the gang was killed and three other members of the gang were severely injured, without any casualties on the side of the police. The injured men and one other terrorist were captured by the police, and a number of arms was recovered from their possession.

In this encounter Sub-Inspector Mani Ram Kala showed courage, presence of mind and leadership of a high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as laid down in rule 5.

No. 12-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Punjab Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Sohan Lal (deceased) Head Constable No. 234, Provincial Armed Police, Punjab.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the 17th January 1948, Head Constable Sohan Lal was posted to a forward picket on the Amritsar border. On January 31, 1949, about two dozen raiders attacked villagers working in a wheat field and kidnapped one of them. The others managed to escape and contacted a Provincial Armed Police Patrol at village Mehdiapur. The patrol immediately rushed to the scene. There was no available cover in this area and as the patrol reached the field in question, the raiders who had taken up positions fired upon the Police party from across the border. Foot Constable Maluk Singh who was the scout of the patrol fell down. He was hit by two bullets in the stomach and arm. The Police party took lying positions and there was an exchange of fire. Meanwhile, reinforcements arrived from Mehdiapur and the neighbouring picket of Mianwala Hithar. Repeated attempts made to retrieve the wounded constable failed as the police party were subjected to heavy machine-gun fire. Head Constable Sohan Lal, who led the party from Mianwala Hithar, knowing full well the danger of the situation and also the necessity of bringing the wounded constable to shelter, himself advanced under heavy fire. But before he could reach the wounded man he was killed by a burst of machine-gun fire.

Head Constable Sohan Lal showed gallantry of the highest order in the face of certain death and by his conduct set an example of selfless devotion to duty, fully meriting the posthumous award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 13-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the West Bengal Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Gobar Singh (deceased) Constable No. 98, Armed Police Battalion (II), West Bengal.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the 11th November 1948, a small patrol party while patrolling Diar Shibnagar-Police Station Raninagar, District Murshidabad, encountered a band of raiders. The raiders took cover and opened fire on the patrol who returned the fire. The raiding party used rifles, bren and sten guns and hand-grenades. The patrol party, being outnumbered, decided to retreat. Constable 98, Gobar Singh of Armed Police Battalion (II), covered the retreat of the party knowing full well the odds he was going to face and the danger he was going to expose himself to. Nevertheless with the help of others he kept the raiders at bay till the main body extricated itself. In the confusion and panic that followed this incident in the village, a woman was hit by a shot fired by the raiders. When Gobar Singh went to help her, he was shot dead. His dead body and his rifle and ammunition were carried away by the raiders.

His supreme sacrifice not only saved the Police party from greater casualties, but upheld the prestige of the Police Force to which he belonged. He showed initiative and conspicuous gallantry of the highest order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

14-Pres./51.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Punjab Police:—

Name of Officer and rank.—S. Hazara Singh, Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police, No. 278/J, of the Gurdaspur District.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—During the summer of 1948, some dangerous armed dacoit gangs had formed in the Gurdaspur district and special measures had been taken to deal with them. Assistant Sub-Inspector, Hazara Singh was one of the officers deputed for this duty. On the 2nd August 1948, at about 9-30 p.m. the Assistant Sub-Inspector with a small force was proceeding to occupy a picket point as a part of the scheme to deal with the dangerous armed gang of Tahal Singh. While on his way to village Ghoman he was suddenly confronted with an armed gang of dacoits seven in number. When the Assistant Sub-Inspector challenged them, the dacoits divided into groups and opened fire. Revolver in hand and mounted on horse back the Assistant Sub-Inspector chased one of the group of dacoits. He was assisted by Head Constable Darshan Singh who was armed with a .303 rifle. Eventually he caught one of the dacoits and shot him dead. The rest of the dacoits, however, escaped under cover of darkness. The dacoit who was killed was identified to be one Chanan Singh a prominent member of Tahal's gang wanted in several cases of murder, dacoity and robbery.

In this encounter, Assistant Sub-Inspector Hazara Singh showed courage, determination and leadership of a high order.

Name of Officer and rank.—Maluk Singh, Foot Constable No. 2783, of the Provincial Armed Police, Punjab.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—In January 1949, some transborder raiders attacked villagers in a wheat field in Punjab along the Indian border, and kidnapped one of them. On receipt of information Provincial Armed Police Patrol at village Mahdipur rushed to the scene. No sooner did they reach the fields in question, than they were heavily fired upon from across the border by the raiders who had already taken positions. Foot Constable Maluk Singh, who was the scout of the patrol, was hit by two bullets in the abdomen and in the arm and fell. The other members of the patrol took lying positions and fire was exchanged. Foot Constable Maluk Singh although grievously wounded went ahead of the rest of the patrol as a scout and though suddenly fired upon gave a good account of himself by firing a number of rounds at the raiders until he became unconscious on account of loss of blood.

In this encounter, Foot Constable Maluk Singh acted like a seasoned soldier and set a high example of courage and tenacity, unmindful of the great personal risk involved.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under Rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the grant of the Police Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule No. 5.

No. 15-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Bombay Police:—

Name of officer and rank.—Krishnarao Bhawanrao Salunke, Police Constable, Bombay City.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the 24th August 1947, while Constable Salunke was on duty at Navpada, a village in the jurisdiction of Bandra Police Station, there was a disturbance at about 9 p.m. in the vicinity of a Ration Shop belonging to Mr. Bakali. He immediately rushed to the scene and fought his way towards the owner of the shop who by that time had been stabbed on his head and back with a large clasp knife by Kassam, a former detenu and a member of a gang of desperadoes. The intervention of Police Constable Salunke foiled the murderous attack on Mr. Bakali and the assailant turned on the Constable with his knife. In no way deterred by the grave risk he was running in tackling an armed ruffian bent on murder, Constable Salunke closed with the assailant and eventually disarmed and secured him. Thereupon an associate of the assailant struck the Constable on his nose and temporarily dazed him, with the result that the assailant made good his escape.

In this encounter Police Constable Salunke showed great courage and high sense of duty and his action in grappling with an armed ruffian, though he was unarmed himself, is deserving of the highest praise.

2. This award is made for gallantry under Rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the grant of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.

No. 16-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Bihar Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks.—Fazlur Rahman Mallik, Sub-Inspector of Police, and Achyutanand Jha, Sub-Inspector of Police, of Monghyr, Bihar.

Statement of services for which the decorations have been awarded.—On the 21st February, 1949, a dacoity was committed in a shop in Mirzapur Mohalla in Monghyr town. To prevent a recurrence night patrols were intensified. On the night of the 1st March, 1949, probationary Sub-Inspectors Fazlur Rahman Mallik and Achyutanand Jha while patrolling this area on cycles noticed a gang of about 50 men, armed with guns, revolvers, swords and other weapons at the cross-roads near Purniganj Mahalla. The Police Officers challenged the gang at a distance of about 30 yards but were attacked instead. Thereupon the Sub-Inspectors opened fire with their revolvers, and in spite of overwhelming odds continued firing. In the encounter Sub-Inspector Fazlur Rahman Mallik was injured badly by a gunshot, but this did not deter the Sub-Inspectors who continued to chase, one of them giving it up only when he fell exhausted by his injuries. No assistance came to them in spite of the alarm raised. Both ran a serious risk of being done to death; one of the officers had three bullets in his body. This incident led to vigorous investigation which resulted in the unearthing of a big gang operating in this area. One dacoit was arrested with two revolver bullet wounds obviously caused by the fire of one of the Sub-Inspectors. The accused confessed to several cases of dacoity and implicated a large number of his associates.

Had it not been for the valour shown by the two Sub-Inspectors this gang could not have been brought to book.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under Rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.

No. 17-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks.—Amar Dev, Head Constable No. 15100 and Gopi Singh, Constable No. 15754, XI Battalion, Provincial Armed Constabulary Uttar Pradesh, both on deputation to Hyderabad State.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the 29th December, 1948, information was received that Gopala Reddy, a desperate leader of a gang of terrorists, who was wanted for a number of murders, was camping in a village Patarlapad, District Nalgonda, Hyderabad State. Sub-Inspector Mani Ram Kala organised a raid to capture him with his gang. The raiding party was divided into two, one in charge of Head Constable Amar Dev and the other in charge of Constable Gopi Singh. When the police parties came within about 150 yards of the place where the gang was camping, they were fired at from a very close range by a member of the gang who was perched on a tree. His fire was returned by Sub-Inspector Mani Ram Kala and this exchange of fire put the rest of the gang on their guard. Thus warned, Gopala Reddy took cover and opened fire on the police party with a sub-machine gun. Constable Gopi Singh who was armed with a bren gun, also opened fire and succeeded in wounding Gopala Reddy in the stomach. Gopala Reddy fell but rose again and while trying to aim his sub-machine gun at Constable Gopi Singh, was shot dead by Head Constable Amar Dev. Even though the leader had fallen, the remaining members of the gang continued firing at the police party. Constable Gopi Singh shot another important member of the gang, Kummaroi Venkadu, with a burst from his bren gun. Four others ultimately surrendered. A number of arms was recovered from their possession.

Throughout this encounter Head Constable Amar Dev and Constable Gopi Singh showed courage, presence of mind and devotion to duty of a high order.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the grant of the Police Medal and consequently carry with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.
